

ST. PIUS X CATHOLIC CHURCH

Echoes †

FEBRUARY 2025

A Message from Father Cook

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am deeply honored to serve as your Pastor, and I was humbled by the overwhelming attendance and acclamation with which you honored me at my Installation Mass and reception in January.

Your kindness and love made that evening more special to me than you know, and I thank you so very much. As I said at the Installation Mass, though, the celebration was about more than just me, and my official installation as Pastor of St. Pius X church and school. Because that Installation also celebrated you – the wonderful parishioners of St. Pius X.

We celebrated what, and who, you have become in this parish – and that is, you are truly the Body of Christ. And because you reflect Christ, the Installation also celebrated all the pastors who have come before me at St. Pius X church and school. Because it was those pastors who formed you, over these many decades, into the good stewards of the faith that you are today.

You are stewards of a faith, and of a Christian community, that exudes what it is to live our Catholic faith, and what it is to love others as Christ loves us.

We love one another with a Christ-like love through the celebrations and the heartaches, in the joyful times and in times of sacrifice.

So, I thank you for reflecting that love of Christ to me, especially on the occasion of my Installation, and for being true stewards of the faith to all in our community. It is my hope that God gives us many years together!

In the love of Christ,

Father Cook

Diocesan Support Appeal 2025: Reflecting God's Light

"Reflecting God's Light" is the theme of the 2025 Diocesan Support Appeal and follows Bishop Martin's challenge to stretch ourselves and to let God's light shine through us and use the gifts of this world for God's glory. The DSA provides funds for Catholic Charities, educational, multicultural and vocational ministries and the Eucharistic Congress. Your contribution to the DSA funds agencies and ministries that reach the poor, hungry and homeless. It also provides programs that help in the faith formation of children, teens, families and those studying vocations. Your participation, your prayers and your financial support of the DSA are crucial to making God's love known to those who are less fortunate, marginalized or hungering for his presence in their lives.

Please visit our website at www.stpiusxnc.com/dsa to watch the 2025 DSA video and to donate online. In the video, Bishop Martin explains how we can reflect the light of God's glory by using human hands and he highlights some of the important work done by DSA-funded ministries. St. Pius the Tenth's 2025 DSA campaign assessment is $213,000. We will need the support of all parish families to meet this goal.

What's in a Coat of Arms? It's a Matter of Ecclesiastical Heraldry

Ecclesiastical heraldry refers to the use of heraldry within Christianity for dioceses, organizations and Christian clergy. Initially used to mark documents, ecclesiastical heraldry evolved as a system for identifying people and dioceses. It is most formalized within the Catholic Church, where most bishops, including the Pope, have a personal coat of arms. Many of you saw Father Cook's coat of arms at his Installation Mass, and we'll soon be creating a parish coat of arms and crest for our own parish of St. Pius the Tenth in the near future.

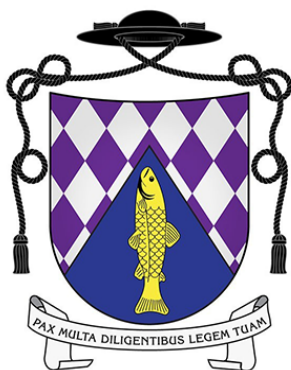

POPE FRANCIS decided to keep his previous coat of arms, chosen at the time of his episcopal consecration. The blue shield is surmounted by the symbols of papal dignity - the mitre above crossed keys of gold and silver, bound by the red cord. At the top of the shield is the emblem of Pope's religious order, the Society of Jesus: a radiant sun carrying the letters in red, IHS, the monogram of Jesus. Lower down on the shield there is a star and spikenard flower. The star symbolizes the Virgin Mary, while the spikenard symbolizes St Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church. On the bottom of the coat of arms you will find the Pope's motto, which reads, Miserando Atque Eligendo, or "by having mercy, by choosing him." This is taken from the longer phrase: "Vidit ergo Jesus publicanum, et quia miserando atque eligendo vidit, ait illi, 'Sequere me'." This is from a homily of St. Bede and translates to: Jesus therefore sees the tax collector, and since he sees by having mercy and by choosing, he says to him, 'follow me'. There is a secondary coat of arms used by the Vatican, depicting most of the same elements, except the mitre and keys are replaced by the galero and tassels. The 15 tassels on each side indicate the rank of pope.

BISHOP MICHAEL MARTIN has a Coat of Arms with the outline of a San Damiano Cross at the top of the processional cross. The left side of the shield contains the emblems of the Diocese of Charlotte: a Celtic Cross as an homage to The Cathedral of St. Patrick, and a crown in reference to Charlotte as "the Queen City." The right side of the shield has the Franciscan coat of arms at the center: an image of the crossed arms with nail wounds in the hands – one representing Christ and the other St. Francis of Assisi. There is also a form of the cross often depicted as the letter "T" (Tau), the last letter of the Hebrew alphabet. This Franciscan symbol is centered within a field of black and gold, a quarter of the coat of arms of George and Cecil Calvert, Barons of Baltimore. Both were Catholics, with Cecil establishing the then Province of Maryland (Bishop Martin's home state) as a proprietary colony for English Catholics who were no longer able to practice their faith freely at home. The bottom of the Coat of Arms features Bishop Martin's motto: Duc in Altum, which is Latin for "Put Out Into the Deep," from Luke 5:4. The Coat of Arms was designed by Bishop Martin's former student Brian Taberski, an education professor at Seattle University. The galero and 6 tassels on each side indicate the rank of Bishop.

FATHER CHRISTIAN COOK has an established coat of arms that was designed by Father Cory Catron, pastor of Our Lady of Mercy Catholic Church in Winston-Salem. The galero and tassels above this coat of arms indicates the rank of priest; two more tassels will eventually be added to the crest to indicate Fr. Cook's new role as Vicar Forane. The diamond pattern in the upper half of the crest references Bavaria, in which some of his mother's German family historically resided. The color purple represents Father Cook's study and practice of law prior to becoming a priest. The larger triangle on the bottom half of the crest represents mountains in heraldry, and is blue to specifically reference the Blue Ridge Mountains, which represents the area in which his father's family historically resided. It also references that Father Cook was born and raised in North Carolina and spent most of his younger life in the mountain city of Asheville. The fish is a common Christian symbol in heraldry and reminds us of the humble profession of many of the Apostles – as fishermen, and then ultimately as fishers of men, which pays homage to the priesthood. The fish being vertically oriented imitates the crest of the German town of Kaiserslautern, from which Father Cook's grandparents immigrated to the United States in the 1920's. Under this coat of arms is Father Cook's motto, inspired by Psalm 119, which brings together his life of studying the laws of man with that of endeavoring to always place the law of God above all: Pax Multa Diligentibus Legem Tuam, which translates to "May there be abundant peace for those who love your law."

A Message from Finance and Administration

Dear St. Pius X Parishioners:

I'm happy to provide for your review a consolidated statement of activities for the period beginning July 1, 2024 and ending December 31, 2024.

For the period, offertory income was $1,063,054 which was slightly below our year-to-date budget of $1,143,147. However, other revenue offset this slight shortfall resulting in a net operating surplus after expenses of approximately $177,000 at December 31, 2024.

Through the generosity of our parishioners, we were able to accomplish a great deal over the last six months. Our ministries are growing and serving our mission to Know, Love and Serve. The financial health of St. Pius X is strong. As good stewards we continue to manage expenses closely and we carefully consider the initiatives we pursue.

None of this could be accomplished without your past and continued financial support – Thank You! I also want to thank in a special way our Parish Finance Council for their leadership and support of our mission.

Please feel free to contact the parish office if you have any questions or comments regarding the information in this report.

MORE INFO & PURCHASE

The Marian Prayer Garden

Beginning in 1955, the Daughters of Charity placed the spiritual development of our students at the heart of their education. Today, we proudly continue this tradition. As part of the Gala this year, families will have the opportunity to purchase an engraved paver, which will hold a special place in our Marian Garden.

Nestled between the church and the school, the Marian Garden is set to undergo a beautiful transformation.

This sacred and tranquil space will serve as a place for prayer and reflection, offering families the chance to honor their loved ones through engraved bricks, forever watched over by the Blessed Mother.

4" x 8" Engraved Paver $200

8" x 8" Engraved Paver $350

Bench with a Dedication Plaque $2,000
(only 8 available)

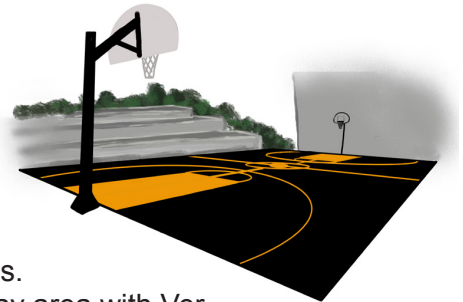

Engraved bricks can be personalized with names, dates or messages to commemorate a special event, honor a loved one, or celebrate a graduation. These bricks will form the foundation of the garden, creating a sanctuary of prayer and reflection for students, staff, parents, and parishioners alike.

Pavers and benches may be purchased online through spxschool.com

Enhancing Our Campus and Existing Structures

Your support will be prioritized to help us upgrade critical infrastructure, including our buildings' fire safety systems, heating and air systems, and the phone and intercom systems. These improvements are essential to ensuring our campus operates efficiently and continues to serve our school community seamlessly.

Your generous Gala donations will also help us continue to maintain and upgrade the outdoor recreation areas of our campus. This may include projects like resurfacing our outdoor basketball play area with Ver-saCourt or a similar surface, which can be utilized for basketball, pickleball, volleyball and other activities. Donations would be focused on enhancing safety, improving functionality, and adding beauty to our outdoor recreation facilities.

Our campus stands as a testament to God's abundant blessings and the unwavering generosity of our community. For 70 years, we have nurtured faith, inspired excellence, and shaped the lives of countless students. Join us in continuing this extraordinary journey of faith, learning, and service as we build toward an even brighter future together!
