

High School Youth Minister at Saint Pius X Catholic Church

Job Description

St. Pius X is an energetic and involved Catholic community, seeking a part-time High School Youth Minister. A successful candidate for this position is a practicing Catholic in good standing with a passionate desire, experience, and drive for enthusiastically engaging our youth in events, activities, and programs that bring them into relationship with Jesus Christ. Candidates also should be prayerful, respectful, optimistic, and patient in personality.

High-level organizational and communication skills are necessary for success. Salary is commensurate with education and experience.

Responsibilities of the High School Youth Minister:

The Youth Minister will develop and maintain a comprehensive youth ministry program for middle school youth at our parish, including the following:

- Recruit and train team members and peer ministers
- Communicate regularly with parishioners and school families through a variety of print and digital mediums
- Coordinate ministry services, including stewardship opportunities for youth
- Plan, organize, market, and fundraise for retreats, camps, and trips
- Collaborate in the organization of our parish young adult ministry
- Establish and maintain relationships with local college students through campus ministries
- Develop and maintain a budget, in collaboration with the Pastoral Associate for Formation and Evangelization

The Youth Minister should have:

- B.A. in Theology, Catechetics, Education, or a related field
- A genuine love and concern for young people
- Some measurable experience in youth ministry through profession or volunteer efforts
- Excellent organizational skills and the flexibility to handle multiple tasks at one time
- Experience in recruiting, developing, and working with volunteers
- Computer and media skills
- Exceptional communication and engagement skills
- A willingness to engage and participate in parish life

This position reports directly to the Pastoral Associate for Formation and Evangelization.
